

Forward-Backward

Words are fascinating! Some have special peculiarities that are fun to explore. There are many words in which the letters can be reversed to make another word.

For example NOW spelled backwards is WON.

This exercise requires spelling backwards, a task that is not often practiced. It will stimulate unused pathways in the brain.

Using the hints given below, find the appropriate word which, when spelled backwards, makes another word.

- | | | |
|---|-------------|-------------|
| To catch an animal | trap | part |
| Wickedness | _____ | _____ |
| Something you sleep on | _____ | _____ |
| Epoch | _____ | _____ |
| Frame of mind | _____ | _____ |
| A predator that is dog-like | _____ | _____ |
| Places for swimming | _____ | _____ |
| Instrument used to fix things | _____ | _____ |
| The opposite of angel | _____ | _____ |
| Moving the head in agreement | _____ | _____ |
| A structure for holding back the waters | _____ | _____ |
| The God of Love | _____ | _____ |
| The hard inside of a peach | _____ | _____ |
| Things used for cooking | _____ | _____ |
| Dioxyribonucleic acid | _____ | _____ |